"On January 5th, 1910, at the home of her son, J. E. Miller, at Streamstown, Alta., the quiet and gentle spirit of Hannah F. McAfee, relict of the late Garret Miller, of Bracebridge, Ont., passed to her reward. Hers was a bright and beautiful life, and she died in the calm assurance of the eternal reward. "Just as a shadow," she said to one of her sons, and then added, "No there is not even a shadow." She was born in Kingston, in 1825, and on March 4th, 1845, she was married to Garret Miller, and enjoyed over 60 years of married life before the death of her husband a few years ago, at Bracebridge, Ont., where they had lived for nearly 30 years. Mrs. Miller had been a member of the Methodist Church for over 70 years, and her beautiful Christian life had a wide influence. One daughter and seven sons survive her, viz., Mrs. Bird of Tofield, Alta.; Edward J. of Streamstown; Chauncey M. of Lloyminster; S. A. of Kamloops; G. W. B. of Sioux Falls, and J. A. of Parry Sound."

The Shibley Family.

(John W. Shibley, Esq., living at "Shibley's Point," Adair Co., Mo., U. S. A., in 1897, being then eighty-five years of age, took the record of the American Shibleys from a letter of his Uncle Henry, grandson of John Shibley of Switzerland, and sent it to G. H. Shibley of Northport, Long Island, N. Y., later of Napanee, Ont. He in turn sent it to Harry L. Shibley of Kingston, Ont., Oct., 1899. He again transferred it to Dr. Oscar Daley, and he sent it to the present compiler in 1907.)

While they were before the Fort, a rebel army under Gen. Nicholas Herkimer approached. They were met at Oriskany with the loss of Herkimer and over 400 men.

It was at this time, or shortly thereafter, that Miller with a party of more than fifty men, made their way over the hills to St. Leger's army. As by that time winter was approaching and food and ammunition was scarce, St. Leger was forced to retire to Montreal. The party led by Miller had to be divided, some joining <sup>Gen</sup> John Johnson's K.R.N.Y. and others the Indian Department.

Jacob Miller, U.E. was one of the many German-born soldiers who served in the British Army during the wars with the French for the control of North America. Our first record reveals him as a Sergeant in the Fourth Battalion of the 60th Regiment. As this regiment was made up <sup>largely</sup> of residents of the American Colonies, we must assume that Jacob Miller had emigrated to America prior to 1755. And we must also assume that he was with the British forces at the Siege of Louisbourg in 1756 and the Battle of the Plains of Abraham in 1759.

After the Peace it is known that he settled in the community known as Durack or Torack ~~by 1762~~ in the Palatine District of Tryon County in 1762. Here he bargained for 150 acres of virgin land with Nicholas Stimbuck. In the next few years he had cleared 20 acres and had built a house and barn, according to his Loyalist Claim, ~~presented~~ which was filed in Montreal on Feb 23 '77. He lost 3 horses, 10 head of cattle, 4 sheep, 12 hogs, furniture & utensils. He left all ~~other~~ as well as crop in the ground when he joined the forces. Fredrick Fox his witness who said he had been 6 or 7 years in possession. His claim was £358.4, but was allowed 110.

Somewhere during these years, he married whose surname is unknown. We know of three children: Julianne, George and Mary, all of whom came to Canada.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

While living in Turlach, the dark clouds of the Revolutionary War covered the skies. In the area around Turlach the settlers were mostly of German ancestry, and the great majority remained loyal to the family of good Queen Anne. So, when a decision was to be forced on him & his neighbors, they remained loyal. At the same time Jacob, having been involved in matters of war, joined with a neighbor, Peter Bonner, and gathered some fifty or sixty men, all willing if necessary to serve the crown.

It thus came to be that this party decided in the summer of 1777 to make their way, as secretly as possible, to join the British Army before Fort Mifflin under command of Colonel M. Legere. As the group did not reach their destination until the 14th August 1777.

~~About twenty years ago Mr. Leonard Hogan resided on the farm on which the Teyler's Pond is situated. During my years of residence <sup>in the community</sup> ~~in the community~~ both he ~~was his physician~~ came under my care. During those years he told me that he had bought this farm from the Miller family, and that one day while roaming about the attic of the house, he found an old cedar box which contained many Miller family papers. Being interested in early local history, I was allowed to borrow them. I made copies of these documents, which ~~from the basis of~~ ~~a history of the Jacob Miller family, about to be written.~~
 They form the basis of the following history of the Jacob Miller family.~~

Jacob Miller was born in Germany <sup>possibly</sup> in the town of Turlach or Dorlach. The first record informs us that he was a Sergeant in the 60th <sup>by passport</sup> Regiment. We are informed that this regiment was made <sup>composed</sup> of persons living in America in the 1750's. We can thus assume that Miller had come to America before that date, and likely as a soldier, as did many British soldiers of German birth. It would then appear that he was with his regiment at the Siege of Louisbourg in 1753 and at the surrender of Quebec in 1759.

In his Claim for Losses, following the Revolution, he states <sup>in 1772</sup> that he had bought 150 acres of land in Turlach, a community south of the Mohawk valley of Canajoharie. This area was settled largely by ~~Germanians~~ <sup>immigrants</sup> from Turlach, a town in Germany.
 Miller was a busy man, clearing 20 acres of land, building a house and barns. He had 3 horses 10 cattle 4 sheep & 10 hogs. Although there is no mention of a family, it is known that his wife Katherine, ~~surname unknown~~ <sup>and</sup>, and three known children Mary, Juliana and George.

Jacob Miller became a leader in his community, and when the clouds of Revolution darkened the country, and in 1776, Miller and most of his neighbors remained loyal

Oriskany 6 Aug 77

The loyal men of the community formed a company under the command of Capt Jacob Miller; with Peter Sommer as lieutenant. They remained quietly in their homes awaiting an opportunity to serve in rising revolution.

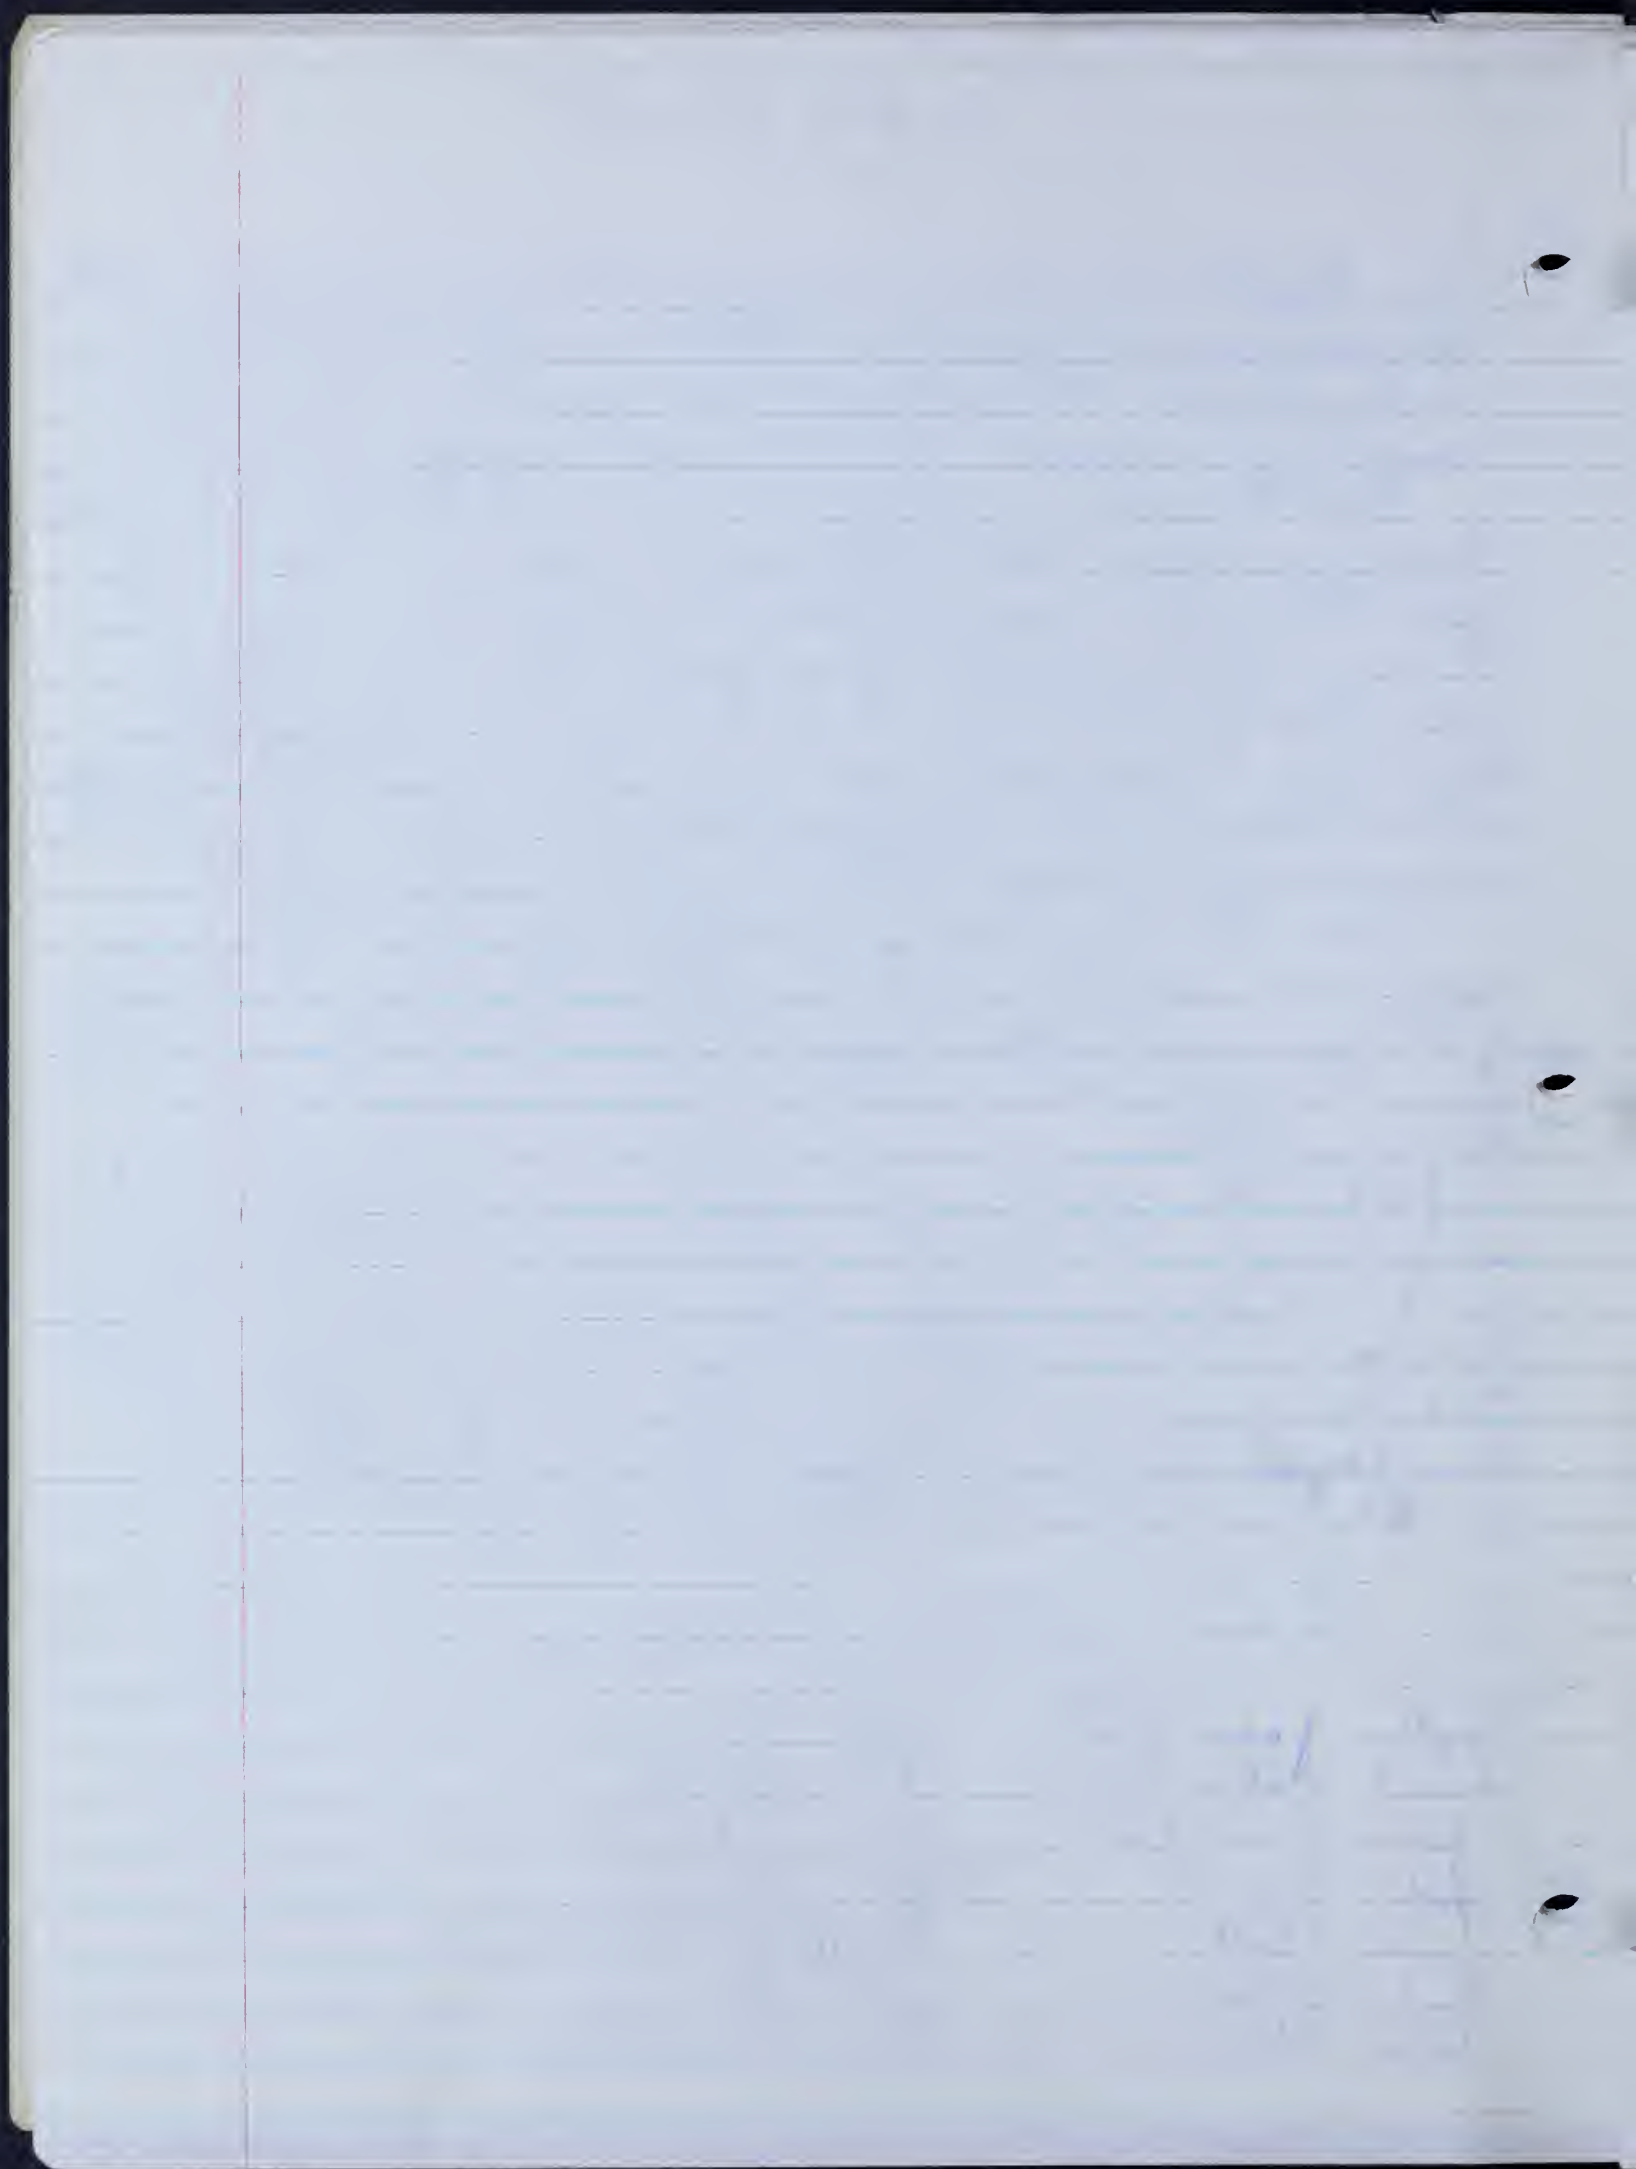

In the summer of 1777, as is well known, General Burgoyne ascended the St Lawrence River, & crossing to Lake Champlain, penetrated New York Province. At the same time another force under Brig. Gen. St. Leger ascended the St Lawrence to Oswego on Lake Ontario. From here he proceeded up the river to attack Fort Stanwix on the Mohawk. It was expected that the two armies would unite and proceed down the Hudson River to New York.

While St Leger besieged Fort Stanwix, the Rebel Army approached with the object of relieving the siege. But the Army of St Leger awaited their approach at Oriskany, where on 4 Aug 1777. The rebels were defeated and their commander Col Herkimer killed.

Jacob Miller and his party of fifty men set out by secret ways to join St. Leger's Army. They arrived at Ft. Stanwix on 24 August, and offered themselves for service. As St. Leger had no authority to deal with the situation, it was arranged that the group would be divided between Sir John Johnson's King's Regiment of New York, and the Indian Department. Here is the list of Miller's Company.

Two days later settlers of New Turlach drew up the following singular declaration:

8 June 1775

"We the inhabitants of New Turlach do hereby certify that whereas William Spombier <sup>(invited)</sup> set himself up for a community at the first benedict the boys to his house to give them a frolick and when they were in their frolick he eat them to sign then he went about and toke who he could get and dereckit them with lyes till he gad them to sign then he went about and toke who he could get and dereckit them with lyes till he gad them to sign for him one of the inhabitants asked him what he meand by such action he answered he dit it ~~of~~ out of Sport and he should handle it if he could therefore if we have next of a committie we will meet boblick to gether and chose 1 who we think for it, we have been to gether and have chosen officers who we thought bid for it."

Note: "This early settlement formed by immigrants from Dorlach in Germany spread over the rolling country of the present Townships of Seward, Sharon and Rock District of Carlisle in Schoharie County. The variety of spellings of New Dorlach . . . was due to the German pronouncing it "Turlach" as their descendants still do at the present time." (William E. Rose, History of Schoharie County, New York (Syracuse 1882) pp. 226-27.)

History Of Millers Is Recalled, Plaque Given

Newburgh — On Sunday, April 7, a link with the past was made when a plaque, presented by Miss Mabel Miller in memory of Cephas Miller and the Miller family, was unveiled in Newburgh United Church.

The inscription read as follows: "In Memory of Cephas Hulbert Miller, 1809 - 1892 and the Miller family, faithful members of this church, direct descendants of Garrett Miller U.E.L."

During the service it was pointed out that the known history of the Miller family is a long one.

It was in 1709 that Martin Miller came from Germany to Ireland. Two sons, Garrett and Peter, came to America in 1772. Garrett Miller, the ancestor of the Miller families in this area, settled in Camden N.Y., where he married Elizabeth Switzer.

Later he took part on the side of the Loyalists and was taken prisoner in 1777. After two years he escaped and joined his wife and children, who had gone to live with his brother, Peter, at Sorel in Canada.

In 1796 Garrett Miller and his family moved to this area and settled near Varty Lake. Later he moved to the seventh concession, Ernestown, where some of his descendants now live. He died in 1823 and is believed buried in the old Switzerville cemetery.

He left his lands, including about 1,200 acres, to his four sons, Peter, William, Garrett and John.

William lived on the seventh concession until he retired and moved to Newburgh with his oldest son, Cephas, who had a farm of 300 acres not far from the present United Church.

It was for this Cephas, grandfather of Miss Mabel Miller, that the plaque was set up.

On Sunday Miss Miller was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Berkley.

The names of those who owe their ancestry to Garrett Miller, U.E.L., are too numerous to mention. Down through the years, like their illustrious ancestor, they have made a great contribution to the religious, social and political life of the community in which they live.

It is worthy of note that there are descendants of Garrett Miller in the United Church at Switzerville to-day.

Sorel 24 June, 1779.

Petitioners have with the greatest danger & difficulty for a space of 3 yrs raised a Company of men, then in the midst of the Rebels, without any instructions from any of H. M. officers. The first opportunity that offered they joined H. M. troops under the command of Brig'r Gen'l St. Ledger, at Ft. Stanwix, the 14 Aug., 1777. With a party of 50 men, fir for service, in order to assist in conquering the province of N.Y.. On their arrival at Oswego from Ft. Stanwix they were obliged to submit to their company being distributed & joined to the different companies of K.R.R.N.Y. & Ind. Dept.

And as your Excellency's petitioners Rec'd no farther acknowledgements than being made sergeants in said regiment humbly pray

Endorsed from Mr. Jacob Miller formerly serg't 60th Reg't, now in Sir J. JS Corps, praying redress.

Clark's Reminiscences

East half of No. 29 was owned by an old German by the name of Tral, a bachelor. He gave it before his death to another German named John Miller.

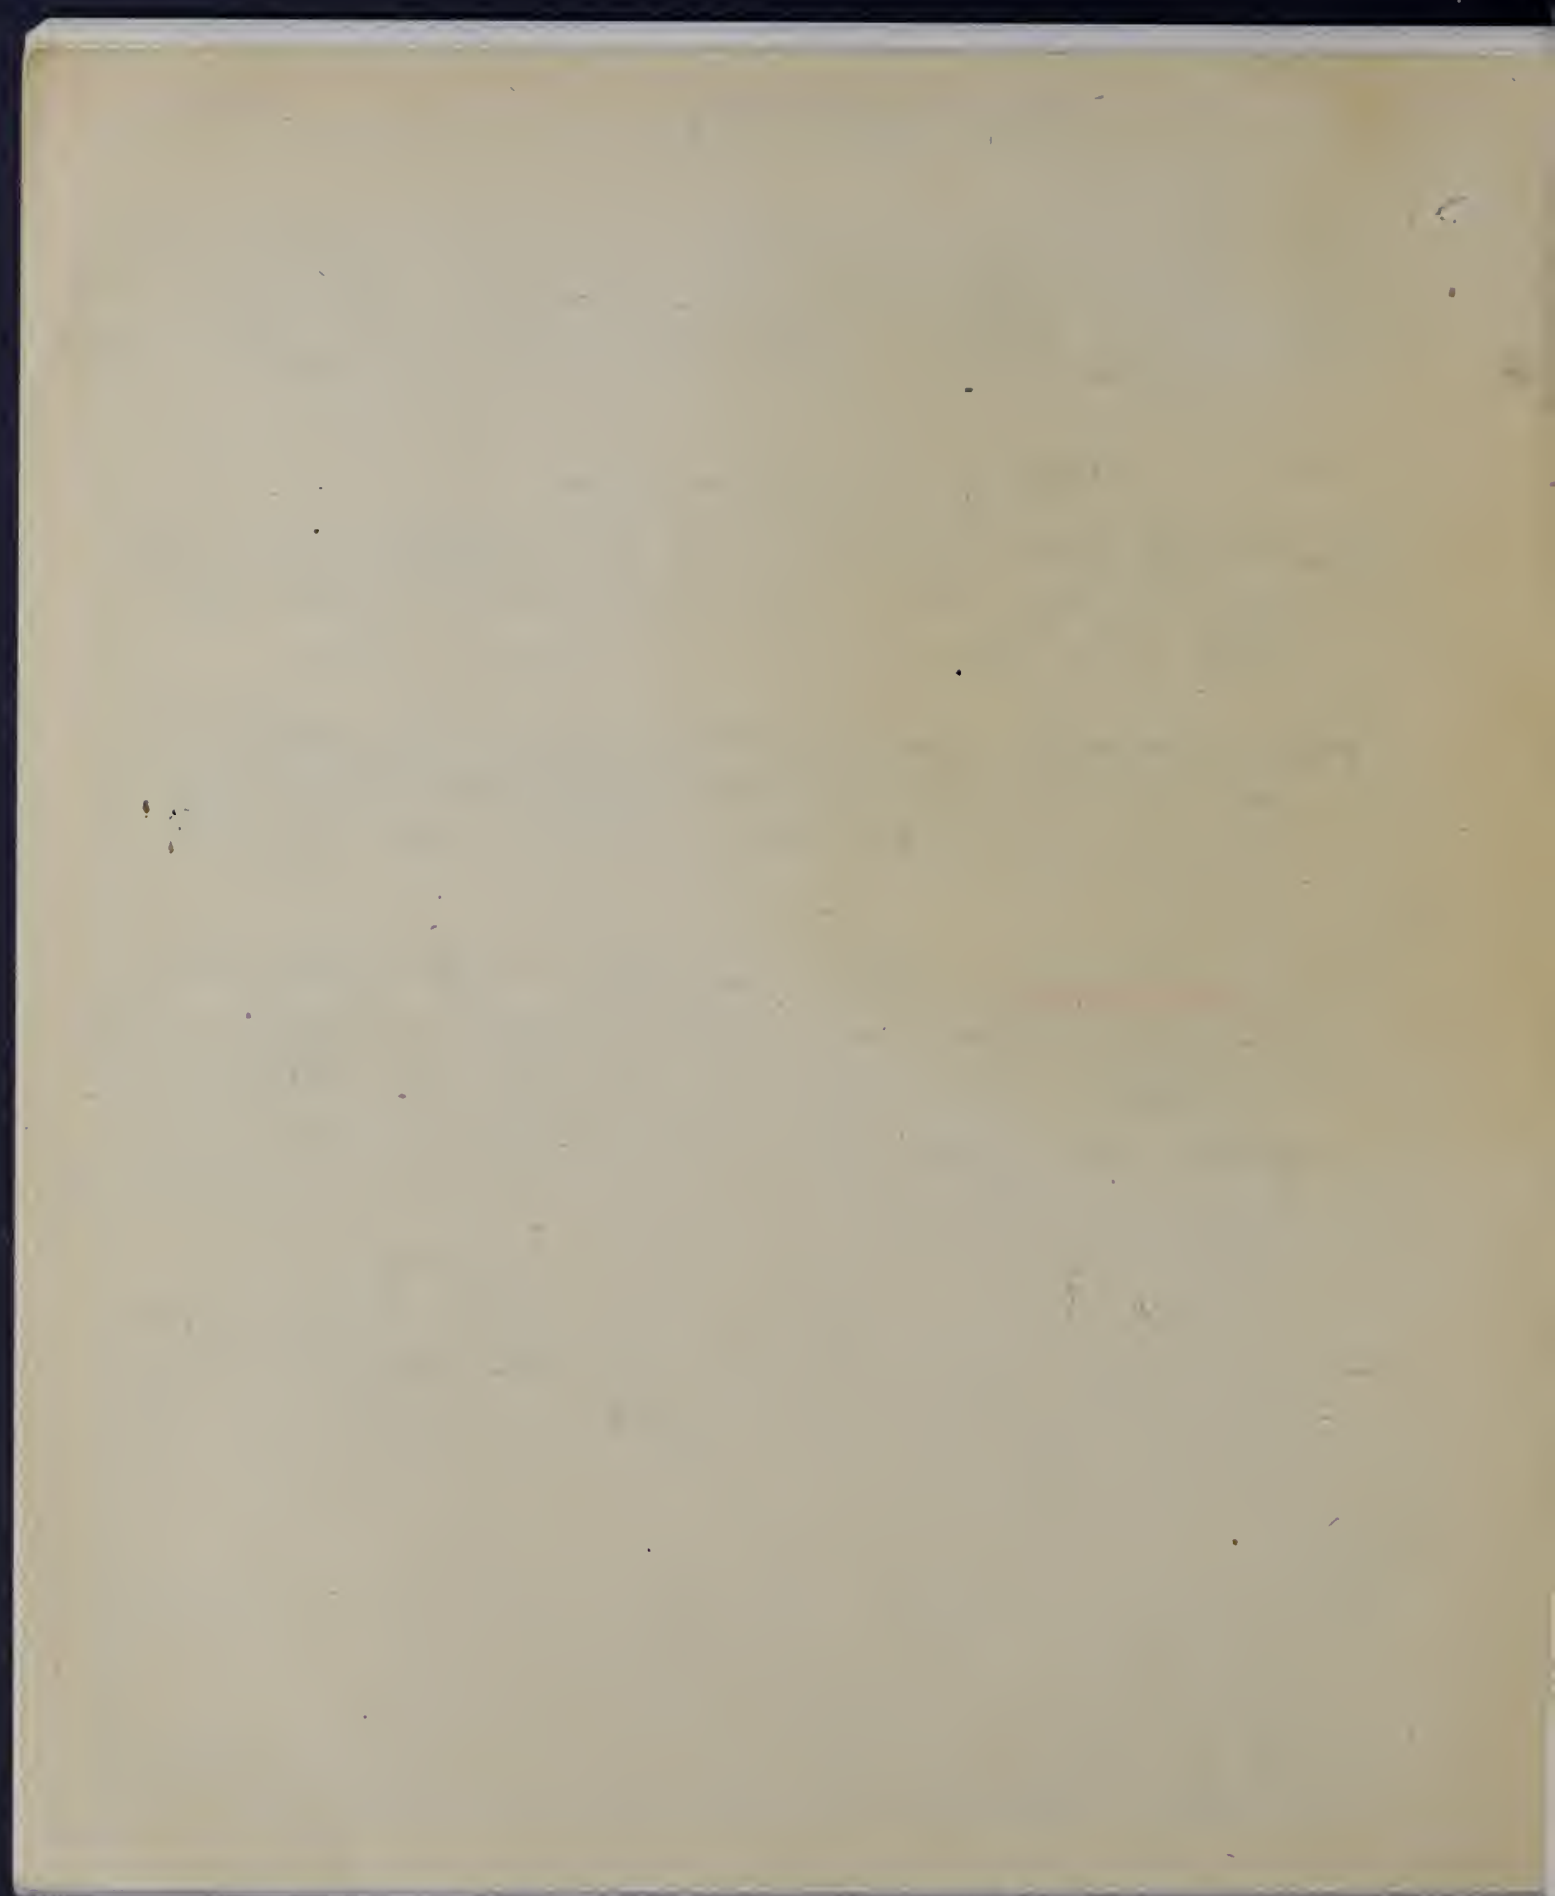

John Caldwell who married Jinney Miller, settled on lots 27 + 28 with Sebastian Hogle & John Lake. They soon removed back in the concession, where they had brothers.

Mr. Jacob Miller settled next above Capt. Parrot. He had one son (George) and several daughters. George married Elizabeth Cadman. Jinney married John Caldwell, as mentioned before. One married Zachariah Sinder, and one (Dorothy) married Asa Cadman. The Cadmans settled in the 3rd Town or Fredericksburgh. Old Mr. Miller and his wife have been dead many years. Mr. George Miller died lately (winter 1844); his wife is still living, and his youngest son, Sebastian, now owns the farm.

(Lot 23)

Rev. Wigan. The next farm has been occupied by various persons. Mr. Wigan, a Lutheran Minister, owned it for some time. Afterwards Mr. Abraham Cney, who still (1844) resides on it.

Mr. John Mabee lived next above. He married Barbara Huffnord. He sold to Abraham Cney and moved to Thurlow.

Dear Dr. Burling -

I am interested in your list of Loyalist Graves in the Bay of Quinte area. Would you please send me a copy?

I am endeavouring to serve as genealogist for the Calgary branch, and for personal reasons I am interested in this list. I am descended from Phoebe Canniff who married Shubael Foster. She was a daughter of Elizabeth Miller and John Canniff. This was Elizabeth's second marriage as she married for the first time John Roblin. She was the daughter of Garrett Miller - Dutchess Co. N.Y. And of course, the Canniffs were Loyalists in their own right.

Enclosed please find my check - and thank you. I am.

Very truly yours

Family Finds Rathbun Door In Renovating Morven Home

While renovating and restoring an 125-year-old house, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson, found at least two of the best doors were made by the famous Rathbun Co. of Deseronto.

While sanding down the doors, Mrs. Wilson found an inscription which said they were made by H.B. Rathbun of Mill Point, which was later Deseronto. They were made between 1874, for that was when Rathbun began his sash and door factory, and before 1883, when the company changed its name to Rathbun Co.

The Wilson home is of stone covered with stucco which the Wilsons intended to remove but Mr. Wilson fell from a roof inside the building while working on it on Dec. 27, 1971, striking his spinal column on a beam, and he is confined to a wheelchair.

The Wilsons sold their home at Bath and moved to the farm they now occupy on No. 2 Highway after selling their property at Bath to Canada Cement. The house they moved into, which was at one time in the hand of Wilson family connections, was built about 1850 on land deeded to Henry McGuinn by King George III in 1803. It is believed an addition was built about 1875 and it was then that the doors and woodwork throughout the whole house was put in.

The Wilsons have many souvenirs of a family nature, including a chest of drawers made from boat timbers by one of Mrs. Wilson's ancestors on the Finkle side of the family, and a tool chest made by Mr. Wilson's grandfather when he worked for Rathbun. They also have the original deed for the property and Royal Seal in excellent condition.

The Rathbun Co. was involved in lumbering, railroading and manufacturing in the 19th Century but the company began to decline with the death of Edward Rathbun and the depletion of timber limits and surrendered its charter in 1923. Its sash and door factory was located about where Metcalfe Foods now stands.

MERCER-MILLER

ERNESTOWN—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Miller recently when their only daughter, Ilene, was united in marriage to Mr. Wesley Mercer, son of Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Mercer of Roblin.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in white silk velvet with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by the groom's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pringle of Napanee. Mrs. Pringle was dressed in blue velvet with accessories to match.

The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, Rev. Mr. Mercer, assisted by Rev. Mr. McKenzie of Bath.

During the signing of the register Miss Edna Wood sang sweetly, "Because." The bride's table was very pretty with its three-storey wedding cake and the season's decorations. The bride's mother was attired in black silk velvet with silver accessories and the groom's mother in rust crepe with sequins trimmings and accessories to match.

After the luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Mercer left amidst good wishes to spend a few days at Kingston with friends. In the spring they will take up residence at Trenton.

Miller-Clarkson
House

Irvine Miller Nov. 25, 1949

Says that this building was once a hotel, before the Millers bought it.

His grandfather, Alpheus, was the first Miller to live in it. His son, George 1833-1917, was born in this house. George occupied a small log house just east of the stone house when he was first married, Dec. 23, 1860, to Emma, dau of George Baker, on the next lot east. This was only for a short time, after which he moved into stone house.

The house has been repaired twice. The first time was to rectify plastering on inside wall, causing steaming of wallpaper. Plaster torn off & wall strapped.

The second time was repair of front wall which was bulging out. The front layer of stone wall was replaced after Irvine was married & living at Odessa (about 1915 ~~or~~ even earlier).

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs or sections, with some lines being more distinct than others. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat slanted. There are some words that are more legible, such as "I have" and "the", but the overall content is difficult to discern. The paper shows signs of age and wear, with some staining and a small tear at the top right corner.

overturned and an oar was broken, but the two men finally made their way a mile and a quarter to the overturned craft.
By that time the men had been in the water about two hours.

Keogh and York, both whom were exhausted, also recovered.
Both men are married. Keogh has a family of four boys and two girls, two of the boys being twins. York has three children, two boys and a girl.

Dr. H. S. Sexsmith Buried:

26 April 1962

Distinguished Doctor Born at Bath

Born at Bath village in 1921, Howard Shibley Sexsmith who died recently in California, was buried last weekend in Catar-aqui Cemetery.

Distinguished in the field of medicine, Dr. Sexsmith was educated at Bath Public School, Bath Continuation School, King-ston Collegiate and Vocational Institute, Queen's University and Royal Military College.

After studying two years at RMC, he served several years in the Royal Canadian Artillery Service in Canada, the United Kingdom, Italy and Europe. In 1945, Dr. Sexsmith returned to his studies during the Michael-mas term in medicine at Oxford University Balliol College.

He then returned to Queen's University where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1949 and degrees as doctor of medicine and master of surgery in 1952.

While at Queen's, he was president of the class in 1948, president of the Aesculapian Society in 1950 and received the Tricolor Award in 1951.

Then followed a distinguished career in psychiatry leading to his certification as a specialist in psychiatry by the Royal Col-lege of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

T e a c h i n g experience was gained at two Canadian univer-sities, McGill and the University of British Columbia as well as in the states of Oregon and Florida.

Dr. Sexsmith then turned to research in mental diseases. Among other research projects, he was a member of a research team during an Oregon study about rehabilitating m e n t a l patients.

Surviving are his wife the former Donna Geraldine Young, and a son, David.

Dr. Sexsmith was the son of Ralph and Gladys Sexsmith. He died in his 41st year.

Burial service was conducted here by Rev. Osborne L. G. Walker. Pall-bearers were Ron-ald Smith, Rodney Sexsmith, Dr. Frank Newell, G e r a l d Young, William Sexsmith and Paul Sexsmith.
